WIP Celebration Summit

Get yourself energized before the Expo starts by joining us as we celebrate 10 years of WIP Council excellence!

Feel inspired and empowered to move your business and career forward by hearing from four women who have broken through the glass ceiling and advance not only their careers, but the industry as well.

A celebration lunch will follow where you will have the opportunity to network with other outstanding attendees as well as the speakers.

The event will close with two impactful training sessions that will provide the audience with valuable tools to succeed in this changing corporate climate and virtual world, while empowering each individual to take control of his or her career and determine ways to help propel their organization forward. WIP Leadership Forum @ Expo

The 2022 WIP Leadership Forum is an excellent opportunity to develop your leadership skills in the workplace as Alyson Van Hooser & Phillip Van Hooser discuss EMOTIONAL INTELLIGENCE and how mastering that can set you up for success. With the Van Hoosers' personal and professional success strategies in tow, attendees will return to work energized and equipped with future-proof tactics to level up the way they lead themselves and their team.

Sunday April 24, 9:00am-11:45pm at the Expo in Nashville. Online assessment, lunch/beverages, and training package: $175. Details.

WIP Roundtable: Lessons From the C-Suite

Hear insights from Joy Alafia on her trajectory to becoming president of the Western Propane Gas Association. Joy will share her inspiration, strategies, and resources that enable effective leadership. She will reveal how to position yourself to be ready for executive opportunities and what to expect once you earn your seat at the table.

Monday April 25, 3:30pm-5:00pm at the Expo in Nashville. Everyone is welcome. Free. Details.
